

Dr. Anil Kumar Saxena is the chairman of Krishna Public Collegiate and Global Institute of Pharmaceutical education and research, Kashipur. He obtained Bachelor of Science in chemistry at Meerut University, India and a Master of Science in Science at Meerut University, India. He earned Ph.D. in Chemistry in 1973 from CSIR-CDRI at Lucknow University, India. He has been awarded Alexander von Humboldt Fellowship 1977, INSA Young Scientist Medal 1983, Themis Chemicals UDCT Diamond Jubilee Distinguished Fellowship, Ranbaxy Research Award in Pharmaceutical Sciences 2004, Life time achievement (2021) by Centre for Education Growth and Research (CEGR), an Honorary Medal for outstanding contributions to Medicinal Chemistry and International Scientific collaboration Moscow, Russia, 2004 and Prof. P.K. Bose Memorial Award (Indian Chemical Society, 2009) Life time achievement (2021) by Centre for Education Growth and Research (CEGR) 2020. He is series editor for book series “Topics in Medicinal Chemistry” published by Springer Verlag. Fellow of Royal Society of Chemistry, UK. Editorial Board Member of different prominent journals like, Medicinal Chemistry Research, SAR and QSAR in Environmental Research, Current Topics in Medicinal Chemistry and online International journal ARKIVOC. Member of several committees including Expert Committee, Ministry of Chemicals & Fertilizers, Department of Pharmaceuticals, IND Committee, CDSCO, Govt. of India, New Delhi, and American Chemical Society. It is noteworthy that Dr. Saxena has been enlisted for the 3rd consecutive year in the list of the top 2% scientist in the world Stanford University, USA.

